in postage better now I begin to know the girls now and I think that is part of the reason why I like to stay in the city. the girls some times sing the redwhite and blue and Dixie and starspangled banner and I think I will soon learn to sing them. Ma sends her love to you and so do I. We have and come on next week.

From your affectionate sister

Dear John

I hope you are well we are pretty well. I like to go to school very well and I like to live in the city our teacher's name is Miss Booth and I think she is a good teacher she said she would teach all who wanted to learn and Ed and Ma said I might expect to begin next week. Sarah and David and Andrew and George came and staid all night and started after dinner Mary and I took Anna down town to get a thimble for him but we could not get any small enough for her the man asked us what did we want a thimble for such a little chuck as her Anna wanted to know if Mary and Anna went to school where the funny thing on was the top. she meant the steeple she thought when we said the high school we meant the high steeple of the church. a while ago Margaret and Loton and Anna came and staid two or three days with us. Margaret's health is not very good. we expect David home pretty soon and want you come with him we would all be very glad to see you. Pa is only here at dinner as he is having his wheat brought to portage they have had two or three breakdowns they are drawing their wheat to a new ware house at the railway station. Some times I go to meeting on Sunday. these times on one day we some times go to Presbyterian and some times the Methodist and some times the Episcopals and I think I like the Methodist best. we begin to like live
